The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 6, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On February 28, 2020, respondent filed a Vaccine Rule 4(c) report concluding that petitioner sustained an injury that is compensable under the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 to -34, that is, a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), as defined in the Vaccine Injury Table. The Chief Special Master issued a Ruling on Entitlement on March 6, 2020, finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation for her right-sided shoulder injury.

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $69,286.35. The award is comprised of the following: $67,500.00 for pain and suffering and $1,786.35 for past unreimbursable out of pocket medical expenses. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner is entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). Petitioner agrees.

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment, and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following: $69,286.35, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.¹

Petitioner agrees.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.
